

Ursuline Academy's Lions In Waiting Learning to Lead Summer Camp 2008 "Going Green!"

Lions in Waiting is a minority mentoring and leadership developing program at Ursuline Academy for young women from any minority who are in the 5th through 8th grade who have a passion for learning. Each participant is selected based upon her energy, spirit and leadership. Learning to Lead camp will then cultivate, nurture and develop the potential that each young woman already possesses.

The mission of the Learning to Lead camp is to seek, inspire, educate and prepare minority (this includes a student who will be a first generation college student) young women for the academic, cultural and social challenges of a challenging college preparatory high school environment while building self-confidence.

Ursuline Academy empowers young women to recognize their unique gifts, give voice to her ideals, to strive for personal and academic excellence, to seek justice through actions inspired by Gospel values, and to accept the challenge of human freedom with its accompanying responsibilities. Ursuline welcomes diversity and fosters community in an atmosphere of mutual respect.

Come and join us this summer to learn, have fun and to see what Ursuline Academy has to offer. Our two week camp contains a full agenda of art, asset building, drama, english, math, music, research and science. These topics will be presented in a fun and informative way. This year's camp will focus on our environment throughout all of the disciplines.
