NoLa - or the Big Easy, as locals affectionately call it - is a hub of great food, music, festivals and stunning Old World architecture. Sugar-dusted beignets are a must, cocktail hour is anytime you want it, and the street musicians will have you dancing on the sidewalk.

Preservation Hall of Jazz

Enjoy admission for two to Preservation Hall, the French Quarter's internationally recognized home of Traditional New Orleans Jazz and headquarters of the Preservation Hall Jazz Band. As guests of Preservation Hall, you'll be entitled to "skip-the-line" status. Simply check in at the door and avoid the long line.

This iconic American institution was established in 1961 with the intention of preserving this uniquely American art form. Preservation Hall's evening performances are recognized as some of the world's last "pure musical experiences," presenting authentic, traditional New Orleans jazz, played by the city's finest. There is no bar service, air-conditioning, or other modern updates, Preservation Hall is a truly unique experience for kids and adults alike. In the words of Louis Armstrong: "Preservation Hall, now that's where you'll find all the greats".

Commander's Palace Restaurant

Enjoy a jazz brunch or 3-course dinner with wine pairing for two, including tax and gratuity. Every Saturday and Sunday, the jazz brunch features a Cajun and Creole-inspired menu with both traditional and unique breakfast items. Live jazz musicians fill the room with "good, happy jazz". If you feel like dancing, join the "second line" that often forms behind the band, a passionate and joyful New Orleans tradition! Or you can choose the 3-course dinner with wine pairing any night of the week, which starts with their world-famous Turtle Soup and ends with Creole Bread Pudding Souffle.

This beloved Garden District restaurant is New Orleans at its finest. Owner Ti Martin, daughter of Ella Brennan of the famous New Orleans restaurateur family, carries on the tradition and spirit that have given Commander's Palace its magic and charm since 1880.
